

The 32nd Chinese Control Conference

Plenary Speaker

Wing Shing Wong graduated from Yale University with a combined M.S. and B.A. degree and obtained an M.S. degree and a Ph.D. degree from Harvard University. He is an IEEE Fellow and a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (FHKIE).

He joined AT&T Bell Laboratories in 1982 and from 1987 to 1992 served as a Technical Staff Supervisor. He joined the Chinese University of Hong Kong in 1992 and is now a Professor of Information Engineering. He was the Chairman of the Information Engineering Department from 1995 to 2003. He served as the Science Advisor at the Innovation and Technology Commission of the HKSAR government from 2003 to 2005 and was a Board Director and the Chairman of the Technical Committee of the Hong Kong Applied Science and Technology Research Institute (ASTRI) from 2006 to 2008. He has served as the Dean of the Graduate School in the Chinese University of Hong Kong since 2005.

He is the Principal Investigator of more than a dozen of competitive research grants supported by funding agencies including the Research Grants Council of Hong Kong and the National Natural Science Foundation of China.

He served as an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Automatic Control for 4 years. He has co-founded with other internationally renowned researchers an international journal, Communications in Information and Systems, and is now serving as the co-Editor-in-Chief. He was a member of the 7th Council of the Chinese Association of Automation. He is a Visiting Professor of Southeast University and Fujian Normal University.